

Thursday
April 11th 2019
9 a.m. – 10.30 a.m.

Salottino
Via Marcantonio Colonna, 19
Roma

I-consent Meeting

New Strategies for Increasing Participation of Patients from Diverse Cultural and Religious Backgrounds in Clinical Trials

9 a.m.
Opening remarks

Prof. Laura Palazzani

Professor of Philosophy of Law and Biolaw - LUMSA University

Comments on I-consent draft
“New Strategies for Increasing Participation of Patients from Diverse Cultural and Religious Backgrounds in Clinical Trials”

Prof. Barbara Prainsack

Professor at the Department of Global Health & Medicine at King's College London

Professor at Vienna University, Department for Political Science

Member of the European Group on Ethics in Science and New Technologies (EGE) of the European Commission

Member of the Austrian Commission of Bioethics

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under Grant Agreement No 741856

The meeting is reserved for professors and researchers of i-Consent project

